IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORIGINAL SIDE

WRIT PETITION (LODGING) NO. 1417 OF 2005

Rajeshree Vijay Sarvagod — Petitioner vs.
1. The Maharashtra State Co-operative Bank Ltd. & anr. — Respondents

Ms.Rajashree Sarvagod, petitioner in person.

CORAM : R. M. LODHA &
J.P. DEVADHAR,JJ.

DATED : 6th June 2005

P.C.

Mentioned. Not on board.

2. Heard the petitioner in person.

3. The statutory remedy of appeal is available to the petitioner against the notice allegedly issued under Section 13(4 of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets & Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002.

4. The remedy provided under the Act of 2002 is efficacious and adequate warranting no interference in the extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

5. Writ petition is dismissed in limine.

6. However, to enable the petitioner to approach the Debts Recovery Tribunal by filing an appropriate appeal under Section 17(1) of the Act of 2002, we direct that for a period of two weeks status-quo in respect of the subject premises shall be maintained.

(R.M. LODHA,J.)

(J.P. DEVADHAR,J.)